FROM THE PASTOR

Greetings Gautier! I am excited to be your new pastor. I have been praying for all of you for several months, ever since Heather told me where I was being sent. God has some big dreams for us, and it is my honor to be welcomed into God's church. I am appreciative of the hospitality that you have already shown towards me and my family!

It is scary when we are called to try something new. So much so that when we want to follow the ways of God we get sidetracked. Out of fear we decide not to move and miss God's blessings. God is beckoning us by saying that there is more in store for us. Abram in Genesis 12 gets called to step out in faithfulness to where God is leading. He had to relinquish himself over to God. He had to go. God called Abram to put his trust in God's self. God is faithful every step of the way. We are going to step out in faith with one another.

I am stepping into something new. You are stepping into something new. It is my prayer that we will step into this together. We can dream the dreams that God has for us together. As a clergy couple, my wife (Bess) and I have dedicated our lives to the itinerate ministry in the Mississippi Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Bess is serving her first church as pastor at Cedar Lake United Methodist Church. We have love God's church, and we are also stepping into this whole new era of our lives as a clergy couple. We are bringing our three small children with us: Eowyn (4), Ensley (4), and Loxley (2). I have served a number of churches before, and I am excited that Bishop Swanson, by the Grace of Christ, has sent me here to serve Gautier First United Methodist Church. It is my prayer that we dream God's dreams and that we continue to walk in faithfulness.

Blessings in Christ to you all,

Rev. Austin Hoyle
